AGENDA

We welcome public participation and encourage citizens to express their views during the designated Public Comments section of the meeting. Please note that comments are only permitted at the podium during this time. There will be no talking, eating, laughing, or clapping. If you need to express your approval for something, please wave your hands. To ensure a respectful and orderly meeting, any disruptive behavior will result in a single warning. If such behavior continues, the individual will be escorted out of the room. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
